

Again, thank you to everyone here. We wanted this to be intimate with people who had a direct impact on our lives during the past year. Everything was tremendously difficult and the help and support that you provided was both selfless and incredibly appreciated.

Boys: There's so much to say. I miss you and think about you every day. I wish I had just one minute with you. I wish I could have felt the warmth and softness of your skin, I wish I could have just one scent, heard one cry...

we'll never have an earthly connection, so I ask you to please show us your personalities through Tommy. Come to us in our dreams and let us know what your faces look like.

I also know that you are in heaven telling us to not be sad. That what we think of as a lifetime is really just a blink of an eye when it comes to eternity and that we will all be together again soon.

We love you and we miss you. Between uncle terry, cousin brien, your great grandparents and all the other angels in heaven, you are surrounded by great people who love us and love you.

Oli Mac, Grey: watch over your sister and brother. Through whatever ways you can, make your mom feel your love and happiness.

As sad as this situation is, I am happy we gave you life. I am happy that we have two angels in heaven and I know we'll see each other again. Until then, sit up straight, shoulders back.
